

The former Attis rail yard tax parcel is presently in use and occupied by Finger Lakes Railway which presently keeps a locomotive on this parcel and serves several customers at the rail yard including the adjacent Messer C02 plant. It is presumed, but not known, that some owners of parcels located on the remainder of the former Miller Brewery Complex (not involved in this tax auction) may have rights to use or access this rail yard together with the former Attis Facility.